

I want to support local Low Power FM stations around the country. I want more local news, and more variety in my area. I feel that the network news radio stations don't pay enough attention to important local issues, and I am really fed up with the bland homogeneity of the Clear Channel style radio shows. Variety is the spice of life, freedom and democracy.